

Capstone Project Proposal

This form is intended to serve as your contract with School of World Languages and Cultures for the delivery of your capstone project. It is not a legal document; rather, it is intended to assist you in focusing on your Capstone Project in a timely and efficient manner. You should think through what you are proposing to do and what you are proposing to deliver. Please identify your advisor (signature needed) and your capstone project you propose to deliver.

Name: Linda R. Flores Language: Spanish

Proposed Title of Capstone Project: Spanish - English Code - Switching

Among Latinos in Monterey County

- Attitudes Latinos have on Spanish - English Code-switching
- Respond the following questions. in Monterey County.

Significance of your study: Why did you choose the topic?

I chose this topic because I tend to do code switching between English and Spanish. With this in mind, I want to learn more about this occurrence.

Research Questions: What questions do you want to investigate in your study?

- what is code switching? • what causes CS?
- is it consider acceptable in this region?
- who is more likely to do CS? who is not?

(age group)

Method: What approaches and procedures do you intend to use to respond to your questions?

I plan to go over articles that are related to this subject to get ideas. on how to write my capstone. I also plan to use the data that G. Zapata has obtained. when explaining what CS is, I plan to use ~~some~~^a poem or two to help the Timeline: Outline your projected timeline to complete your project. reader better understand

- go over articles that I have read
- go over data that has been given
- learn how to input data into computer (apply what I have learned in SPAN 30)
- go over other data that will be given
- analyze it ^{based on data.}
- write project

Your advisor's name (Print)

signature

date:

Linda R. Flores

Student's name (print)

Linda R. Flores

signature

1 / 15

date: